

Armstrong Holland Tow Grader

These Graders were built in Sydney (Australia) by Armstrong Holland during the 1930's, 1940's and 1950's. They were originally towed by a small dozer or larger tractor and widely used throughout Australia in road construction. Armstrong Holland had an associated business called Champion Construction Machinery, also operating out of Sydney (Australia)